LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The delivery of the English Mail was begun at 10.35 this morning.

We are requested to state that Bishop Burdon will preach in the Cathedral at 11 a.m. and in St. Peter's Church at 6 p.m. next Sunday.

We observe that, by an official notification of this day's date, the period up to which tenders will be received for the Opium Monopoly has been extended to noon of 23rd Oct.

COLONEL Tye Chu Chow, a red-button mandarin of the second rank, came over from Kowloon City to-day on a visit. He was shown round the police barracks and the gaol by Captain Deane, and appeared much pleased at all he saw. He afterwards visited other parts of the Colony.

LAST night the gas suddenly went out at the Tung Hing Theatre, owing to there being an insufficiency of water in the meter. An alarm of fire was raised, and had it not been for a constable who took immediate measures to disabuse the minds of the audience of any cause for alarm, the consequences would have been most disastrous, as there were nearly three thousand people in the house at the time.

AT the Marine Court to-day, Andreas Bodoff, carpenter British ship Bertie Biglow, was charged with refusal of duty and being absent without leave. It appears that defendant had capsized a paint-pot, and the 2nd mate struck him. He wanted to see the Harbour Master, and the Captain took him to the office for that purpose, but when defendant got there he ran away. Defendant denied that he ran away, but said that he had gone in search of an interpreter. Ordered to forfeit 6 days' pay.

THE OVERLAND CHINA MAIL, for to-morrow's English Mail, contains—Editorial Articles,—The German Government and the Lekio, Berlin and Peking, Current Topics, The D. P. on Flogging, Flogging in Hongkong, Extradition from Macao, Mr Hayllar, Gazetted—the Supreme Court Defalcations, Orlengmen's Visit to the Hospital, The Protector of Chinese, New Guinea;—Chinese Notes, Government General of the Philippines, Flogging of Criminals in Hongkong, Our Present Financial Position in China, The Phonograph in Shanghai, Mr Li Kwei on the Education of Women, Meetings, Supreme Court Correspondence, Manila, The Straits, Canton, Macao, Latest Reuter's Telegrams, Miscellaneous, Police Intelligence, The Camphor Tree in Formosa, Alarming Accident on the River at Shanghai, Locusts on the Lower Yangtze, Korean Mutiny of Japanese Soldiers in Tokio, The Loss of the British Barques Rhoda and Emperor, Defalcations and Committal of Deputy Registrar, Commercial Summary, Shipping Intelligence.

COAL IN COOKTOWN.—It is highly satisfactory to know that the development of the coal industry of this district is speedily to be commenced, as a private company, consisting of six shareholders, has been formed within the last few days, and a selection obtained at Little Oakay, upon which it is intended to commence operations very shortly. A boring machine has already been sent for, and the services of a competent operator sought after. The indications of payable deposits are, we understand, very apparent at the locality selected, and we trust to be in a position in the course of a few weeks to report very satisfactorily thereupon.—O. M.

The P. and O. steamer Sumatra, with the homeward mails from Bombay, went ashore six miles south of Brindisi on the 29th ult. The passengers and mails were landed, and the mails were forwarded to London. The steamer was got off uninjured on the following day and proceeded for Venice.

Rear-Admiral Philip Augustus Holman died last week, in his seventieth year. He entered the navy in July, 1821, served in several engagements with pirates in the West Indies, and as mate of the Fair Tasmanian, on the West Coast, where he obtained his promotion to Lieutenant for attacking, in the gig of his ship, a slaver armed with two 18-pounders. A lieutenant of the Cambria he served in the China war in 1841, including the operations against Canton and the capture of Amoy and Chinghae, and he also served with the naval brigade in the attacks upon Chusan, Woosung, and Shanghae. In 1855 he was promoted to the reserve list of captains, and in December, 1876, he became a rear-admiral.

Mr Ma Kien-chong, Aide-de-Camp to the Viceroy of Chih-li, Li Hung-chang, and a member of the Chinese Educational Mission, passed yesterday at the Sarboune a successful examination for the degree of Bachelor of Letters. The Head Examiner congratulated him on his success, and added as a compliment that French youth might take him for an example.

Chung-how, who came to Europe on a special mission after the Tientsin massacre, has been appointed Minister to St. Petersburg.

A prospectus has been issued of the Eastern Sugar Company (Limited), with a capital of £400,000, of which £215,500 is for subscription. The company is formed to take over the business and properties of the Yengarie and the Manila Yengarie Companies and the rights that are known as the Peral concessions, and also the patent rights and inventions of Mr Robert Toth, connected with the production of sugar.

A collision has occurred at Portsmouth between the troop-ship Assistance and the Sunbeam yacht, belonging to Mr T. Brassey, M.P., and resulted in the carrying away of the yacht's foremast. The Assistance was at the time leaving the harbour, and in endeavouring to clear a barge which obstructed her free course she ran into the yacht.

On Saturday last H.E. the Chinese Minister was entertained at breakfast by the Prefect of Versailles, after visiting the Chateau in the morning. In the afternoon he went to the Military School at St. Cyr, and so happened that General Clincham was making the annual inspection of the pupils, who were reviewed, and exercised some manœuvres before Kuo Ta-jen. The skill of these young student officers was greatly admired by the Chinese Minister, who subsequently repaired to the Fort of St. Cyr, and inspected it minutely. On Thursday his Excellency entertained at dinner the Foreign Members of the Chinese Commission to the Exposition Universelle, and of the Chinese Educational Mission. The guests included Mr and Mrs. Robert Hart, Messrs. P. Giquel, Dr. Macartney, C. Jamieson, A. E. Hippessey, H. Cordier, Li Fong-pao, Brown, L.-D. de Segonzac, Count de Sombrail, Kuo Ta-jen returned to London on Sunday. Lady Kuo and her suite attended on Friday the performance at the New Opera House in the box of M. Henri Schneider, the proprietor of the Creuset Works.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL."

Hongkong, Sept. 6th, 1878.—SIR,—There is your issue of Wednesday's Police case of uttering Counterfeit Coins. I submit that if the case is fully reported a more unjust sentence has never been passed even in Hongkong. Surely this is a case deserving the attention of H. E. The unfortunate victim is Charles Voss.

Yours,

W.

[On the face of it, the case referred to looks like a miscarriage of justice. If the defendant had been proved to have wilfully and knowingly passed the bad dollar, the sentence would have been too lenient. But no proof of knowledge—at least not more than was shown against the Captain—was forthcoming; and the sentence therefore bears the appearance of a mistake. The case is pre-eminently one for reconsideration.—E. O. M.]

Police Intelligence.

(Before the Hon. O. May.)

Sept. 6, 1878.

STRAIGLERS. Lars Thomson and Isaac Bettinson, sea-american ship Southern Cross, were charged with being stragglers and ordered to be sent on board their ship.

TO-DAY'S FINES. Tsung Afan and another, widows, fighting like cats. Fined 25 cents each. Lin Apak, and another, rice-pounders, fighting and marking each other in the face. Fined 25 cents each.

Leung Aching, and another, hawkers, fighting about weights and measures. Fined 25 cents each.

Chan Atuk, and, 16 others, indecent bathing at Yow-mah-ti. Fined 25 cents each.

Chan Atuk, and another, seamen, fighting like hawks. Fined 20 cents each.

Ho Aling, and three others, allowing their dwellings to remain in a dirty condition. Amendment promised. Fined 50 cents each.

Chung Atung, and another, obstructing the thoroughfare at Wanchi Road. Offence admitted, but obstruction removed. Fined 50 cents each.

Wong Achai, a widow, cutting shrubs under Kennedy Road. Pleaded ignorance. Fined 50 cents.

Chak Aluk, a coolie, indecent bathing. Fined $1.

Chau Aching, a shopman, packing rice on the footpath; charge admitted, shop being small. Fined 45.

SERIOUS CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT. Frederick Bowley Huffman, lately Deputy Registrar of the Supreme Court, was charged with having embezzled various sums of money amounting in all to $40,849.79.

Mr Sharp (Crown Solicitor) prosecuted, explained the nature of the charge and the Ordinance under which the proceedings were taken. There were several sums which appeared in defendant's accounts which it was thought were never received, but he

Mr Sharp would prefer to take the case as it stood. Besides the present charge, he regretted to say, there were numerous other accounts which were found incorrect, it was feared to the extent of several thousands of dollars, and a competent accountant was now engaged in scrutinizing the accounts, and it was to be hoped for the defendant's sake that they would be found correct. Mr Huffman had held various portions of trust in the public service in this Colony since 1855 and every confidence was placed in his integrity. Mr Alexander had been appointed an official assignee, but for some reason he did not wish to take office, and Mr Huffman was appointed specially official assignee in the bankruptcy of Messrs. Lyall Still & Co. The liabilities in this estate were $3,765,624, $1,32,000 being secured; the estate was worth $3,108,000. These figures alone will be quite sufficient to show the large interests at stake and complications would, of course arise, and it would take many years to wind up such an estate. Years went on and various sums were paid into the Colonial Treasury to the credit of the estate. Under an order these sums were subsequently paid into the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, and up to May 1868 the sum of $31,241.50 was paid into the Treasury, but all this had been withdrawn except the sum of $1,171.50, which still remains there. $17,000 were paid into the Oriental Bank on fixed deposit, $25,000 and $12,000 were paid into the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank also on fixed deposit. All these sums were withdrawn by defendant in about 6 months. Mr Sharp continued to say that he would prove that since that time no deposits have been paid into the bank, and although the interest has been put down doubtless to throw dust in the eyes of the creditors, really the money has been all withdrawn since 1871 or 1872. Defendant had entire control of the estate. A few of the creditors were pressing for a settlement, but the defendant made good excuses for not winding up the estate. Advertisements to be put in the paper, outstanding debts to be collected, &c., &c., and perhaps it was necessary. A short time since pressure was put upon the defendant, but no suspicion attached to the defendant; by reason of this pressure a dividend meeting was fixed for the 27th June last. The Supreme Court was sitting on that day and the meeting adjourned until 3rd July. Defendant produced a statement on that day, shewing a balance, and that a dividend was to be paid. A dividend was declared, and was to be forthcoming in the course of a few days, but was never paid; being put off from day to day; as exchange was going down rapidly it was thought desirable that a settlement should be made. Defendant then appointed a day early in August to issue the cheques, but when this day same he had gone to Macao. He went without leave of the Government, and a summons was issued requiring him to appear and make an explanation but he failed to appear; which Mr. Sharp thought amounted to absconding. Mr Sharp said he would now call Mr. Plunkett, as the proper custodian of the books, to produce documents relating to the estate.

C. B. Plunkett was then called, and said: I am Registrar of the Supreme Court and official Assignee in Bankruptcy. I produce the schedule in the estate of George Lyall, Charles Frederick Still, and George Francis MacLean trading under the style and firm of Lyall, Still & Co. They were adjudicated bankrupts on the 23rd May 1857 and the schedule filed on the 12th June following. I produce the Government Gazette of 27th December 1857 in which defendant is appointed official assignee in all bankruptcies, and especially appointing him official assignee in the estate of Lyall, Still & Co. H. Smith of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, proved the payment of various sums into the bank on fixed deposit, and its subsequent withdrawal in various sums, with interest, to the order of the defendant. The last money in the estate of Lyall, Still & Co. held by the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank was withdrawn in 1872, and nothing had been paid in since that date to the credit of that estate.

J. A. Carvalho, the cashier in the Treasury, said he kept the books in which the accounts with the Supreme Court are held. Witness had been 23 years in the Treasury. Continued:—The receipts produced were written by me, and amount to $3,247.50; there is now a balance of $1,157.57 to the credit of the estate of Lyall, Still & Co. at the Treasury.

Mr William Wotton, sworn, stated that he was a solicitor and represented Mr Bretton, who acted on behalf of Messrs Chalmers, Guthrie & Co., Chartered Bank, J. G. Morrison, Fusell & Co., Tait & Co., and Dr Bridges, in all representing claims and Dr Bridges, in all representing claims to the extent of $300,000. No dividend has been paid in respect of any of their claims. I have made verbal application to Mr Huffman this year, requesting to know when he would advertise a meeting of the creditors for the purpose of declaring a dividend. Mr Wotton then went on to show that, having repeatedly pressed the defendant and threatened that if the matter was not settled, to bring it to the notice of the Court, a meeting was ultimately held on the 23rd July, at which the defendant produced the balance sheet, now in Court. It was impossible to examine it closely at the time, but five items caught witness's attention as being peculiar. The amount set down for interest was exactly the same for each of the five years, without accounting for compound interest. A dividend was declared at the meeting of a little over 3 per cent., and Mr Huffman said he would draw out cheques and let witness have his as soon as possible. He had never received the cheques. He applied to the defendant for them several times verbally and also in writing. The defendant always put him off. He then applied to him for a copy of the cash account, with the intention of ascertaining whether it was correct by enquiry at the banks and other places. Defendant replied saying that the account was a long one, but he would endeavour to let him have it before the following Saturday. He had not received any information from the defendant with respect to these matters.

Mr A. Wise, assistant accountant in the Oriental Bank, gave evidence showing that the defendant had, in 1871, withdrawn the amount standing to the credit of the estate on fixed deposit.

Mr Toller, of Sharp, Toller and Johnson, said his firm represented creditors to the amount of over $300,000. He gave evidence as to bringing pressure to bear upon the defendant in conjunction with Mr Wotton. The firm had not received the cheques promised by the defendant, nor the accounts, nor any explanation.

Mr Sharp said that concluded the case. He said he had called evidence to show that the money was not where it ought to have been found, and unless it was in defendant's own keeping at was impossible to say where it was. If the defendant could produce the money, the charge fell through; if he was unable to produce it, then he must ask for his commitment.

The prisoner having been cautioned in the usual form, said he had nothing to say, and was then committed for trial at the ensuing sessions.

ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

The P. & O. Co.'s steamer Hindostan, Captain N. W. Haswellwood, with the London mail of the 2nd Augst., arrived here this morning.

TELEGRAMS.

(Straits Times Extra.)

Venice, August 15.—The twentieth division of the Austrian Army, which was advancing on Svorinik, and had to fall back on Gracanica after five days' fighting, has beat a further retreat to Doboi in Bosnia. They were much harassed by the enemy during the retreat.

London, August 15.—The treaty between Austria and Turkey will be signed soon.

A stringent and sweeping bill for the repression of Socialism has been brought forward in the German Federal Council.

The German Ambassador at Constantinople has insisted on the execution of the Congress proposals in respect to Greece, and the Porte has consequently modified its resolution.

London, August 16.—Sir Stafford Northcote, in the House of Commons, said that the Ameras had not invited a Mission, but will be asked to receive one. The cessation of friendly communications, he said, originated with the Ameras himself, who never fully explained his reasons.

The Foreign Secretary said that Dervish Pasha still held Batoum, and that negotiations were proceeding for its surrender.

CYPRUS.—Lieutenant-Colonel Chamberlain.

London, August 16.—Sir Stafford Northcote, in the House of Commons, said that the Ameras had not invited a Mission, but will be asked to receive one. The cessation of friendly communications, he said, originated with the Ameras himself, who never fully explained his reasons.

"On Friday the 16th instant, a party of Gheo Hins coming from different parts of Nebong Tobal, numbering about 200, most of whom were armed with spears, knives, three pronged forks, sticks, &c., occupied the main road leading into the village, where tables were spread with all kinds of eatables; one of the Gheo Hins advanced and, on being refused, kicked the table over. Words ensued which were soon followed by blows, and shooting of houses. The Gheo Hins, not being prepared for the attack, were almost destitute of any means of defence, and finding their homes were being destroyed, they retreated to the back of Boh Aun's house, where they gathered up a lot of bricks, and threw them amongst their opponents without any effect. The Police numbering about eight men, with the Inspector, were unable to put a stop to such a serious quarrel among over 200 Chinese. The Inspector called upon Hock Seng and Boh Aun to render assistance, but they both refused to do so, and finding the riot increasing he ordered the riles to be brought out, as the crowd were making their way towards the Police station. The rioters then began breaking down the houses on the road leading to the station, and beat the Police Sergeant and Corporal; Inspector Filter then came up and raised a gun to his shoulder; this had some effect on the crowd and caused them to retreat a short distance; he spoke to them and advised them to return to their houses; the Gheo Hins maddened at the loss they had sustained, began to abuse their opponents, and, finding the Inspector stood between them, thought the best thing they could do would be to get him out of the way first, and accordingly commenced pelting him with bricks; after they had struck him several times he ordered them to desist, telling them that if they did not, he would fire on them; seeing that his life was in danger, he again spoke to them, and on their leader advancing towards him, he fired at him, and killed him. The effect of this on the crowd was wonderful; in a few moments they had dispersed and were all in their houses. Eight of the head men have been arrested, and between 30 and 40 are now in hospital, many of them in a dangerous state. Mr Superintendent Ommaney left the next morning in the Government Steam Launch with nine Police Constables, but when he arrived there everything was quiet."

"The defensive convention I have concluded with Turkey gives relative to the Asiatic Provinces of Turkey more distinct expression of engagement (sic) than the Treaty of 1856, the form of which was not foul to be practically effected.

"The Sultan has engaged to execute the measures necessary for good government in his Asiatic Provinces, and in order to promote the objects of my agreement with him, I have undertaken to occupy and administer the island of Cyprus.

"I cannot speak too highly of the discipline and spirit of my forces and the solidity with which the reserves answered my summons to assemble, nor of the patriotic efforts of military aid from my Colonies, and the proud desire of my Indian Army to be reckoned among the defenders of the empire.

"The desire was justified by their soldierly qualities displayed in the Malta expedition.

"The spontaneous offer of aid from many Native Governments in India has been very gratifying to me, for in it I recognise a fresh and manifest feeling towards the Crown and person of the Sovereign.

"My relations with all Foreign Powers continue friendly.

"The condition of affairs in South Africa, I regret, causes some anxiety, but all serious troubles there are ended."

Her Majesty then proceeded to enumerate the different measures brought forward during the Session.

London, August 16.—England has abandoned some of her demands for reforms in Asia Minor to which the Porte objected.

The convention does not imply the re-nouncing of Turkish independence, and, whilst accepting English counsels, the Porte considers that British residents in the Asiatic Provinces of Turkey are not threatened.

Venice, August 16.—The convention between Austria and the Porte has been signed. The duration of the Austrian occupation of Boenja and Herzegovina is not fixed, and the sovereignty of the Sultan is recognised.

Venice, August 17.—Thirty Turkish battalions have joined the Bosnian insurgents. The 20th division of the Austrians, which retreated to Dobog, was attacked there by the Bosnians, whose infantry made repeated charges, which the Austrians withstand, but with heavy losses.

Constantinople, August 18.—The embarkation of Russian troops commences to-morrow, and the withdrawal of the British squadron from the Sea of Marmora follows. The evacuation of Batoum has been settled to take place in a fortnight.

Venice, August 18.—The thirteenth Austrian army corps has gained a complete victory over the insurgents at Belasovo, and pursued them to Kiseljak, situated twenty miles from Sarajevo.
